

CHATEAU DE MUSSET

CUVÉE COMPOSTELLE

Appellation : Lalande de Pomerol

Soil : clay and gravels, sandy-gravelly

Varietals : Merlot 76%
Cabernet Sauvignon 19%
Others 5%

Surface : 27 hectares

Age of vines : 27 years old

Ageing : 12 months half in stainless steel vats and half in oak barrels

An easy drinking wine on a noble appellation.

Tasting

An elegant Lalande de Pomerol displaying cinnamon, spices and morello cherry with some toasted notes. The palate is exquisite and open with good complexity. The finish is long and delicious. Easy to approach and enjoy now.

Origin

It is a family run state since 1963, who has another estate in Puisseguin Saint-Emilion appellation.

Serving conditions : Room temperature (19°)

Pairings : poultry, cheese.

